Setting The Context

The Great Sale Paradox

MIRAE ASSET
Mutual Fund

Same situation, opposite reaction. Good things get cheaper, and we behave in two very different ways.

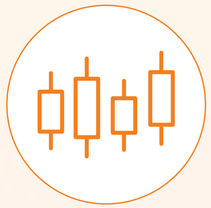

AT THE SUPERMARKET
Premium brands at 40% off

SALE

We queue up, fill the trolley and tell friends. A good brand at a lower price feels like a win.

Feeling: Excitement
“What a bargain!”

IN THE STOCK MARKET
Quality stocks 40% off

FALL

We panic, pause SIPs and wait for ‘better times’, often when prices are already higher.

Feeling: Fear
“What if it falls more?”

A contrarian treats a market fall like a sale on quality: a chance to buy good businesses at reasonable prices.

You Already Think Contra In Everyday Life

MIRAE ASSET
Mutual Fund

Smart buyers often go where the crowd isn't, and might end up paying less for the same quality.

The off-season shopper

Buys an AC in December and a woollen jacket in May.

Lesson: Same product, lower price, because demand is temporarily low.

The IPL auction

Picks a proven player after one bad season, at base price.

Lesson: Form is temporary, class is permanent.

Contra investing applies the same common sense to stocks.

So, What Is Contra Investing?

MIRAE ASSET
Mutual Fund

Buying good businesses that the market has temporarily stopped looking at, and waiting for the crowd to come back.

1. Mood turns: Bad news or a weak patch makes investors sell.
2. Price overreaction: The share price falls more than the business does.
3. We step in: If the problem is fixable, we buy in stages.
4. Crowd returns: As results improve, the price catches up with value.

In one line: out of form, not out of class.

Illustrative representation only; not actual data of any stock or index.

Understanding Contra

Understanding Contra

How Do We Approach Contra?

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Aims to buy good businesses that the market has temporarily stopped looking at, before perception catches up with improving fundamentals.

1 Against sentiment
Aims to buy what is out of favour; avoid what is crowded

2 Research-led
Aims to back stocks where our earnings view is ahead of the street

3 Patient
Hold conviction until the market catches up

All Value Is Contra, But Not All Contra Is Value.

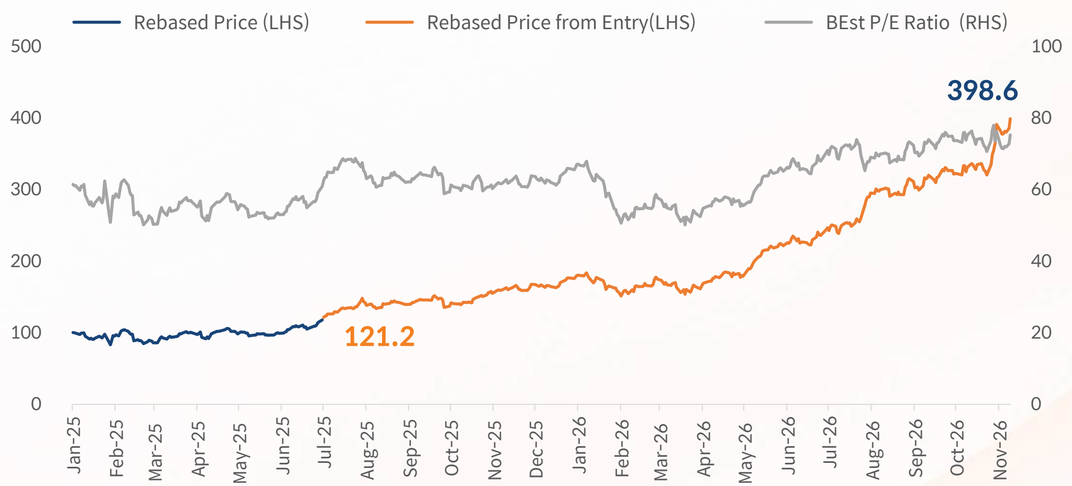

Value asks what a stock is worth; contra asks what the market is getting wrong and hence, what the fair value should be. They meet when pessimism (which may be attributed to multiple factors) pushes a sound business below its worth. But contra goes further, backing good businesses written off on a temporary setback, even when they look expensive on depressed earnings.

Let's understand this with an example:

A key global supplier of HIV-drug ingredients and contract manufacturing services, sidelined by the market after three years of stalled profits.

Company was recorded significant improvement in earnings June 2026 quarter, yet market shrugged as a one-off case instead of a structural improvement in earnings growth which got reflected in subsequent quarters as PE multiple did not see any major change (63x to 75x) despite a 2x rise in share price during July 2025-Nov 2026 period.

How the contrarian bet played out:

~Rs. 121 invested in July-25 became ~Rs. 399 by Nov-26

Sources: Bloomberg, trailing P/E as on 25 Apr 2025, CARE Ratings (20 Jun 2024), Value Research, Company results FY24. The stock is mentioned for illustration only and should not be construed as a recommendation from Mirae Asset Mutual Fund; its performance is not indicative of the yield of any scheme. Mirae Asset Mutual Fund may or may not hold any position in it at any point of time. The value-lens column is an illustrative comparison of investment styles, not a description of any specific investor's actions. Past performance may or may not be sustained in the future and does not guarantee future returns. The investment Framework stated above may change from time to time without any notice and shall be in accordance with the strategy as mentioned in the Scheme Information Document of the scheme. For Complete Investment Strategy please refer to the SID of the scheme.

What Can Make Good Businesses Fall Out Of Favour?

Usually for reasons that are temporary. That gap between price and value is where contra investing begins.

Stock-Specific

One company stumbles

Regulatory Overhang

A regulator hits one firm; the fix is within reach

e.g. USFDA* import alert

Governance Overhang

Trust in management breaks; the business stays sound

e.g. board–founder dispute

Turnaround

The business needs real repair, under new leadership

e.g. bad-loan clean-up, new CEO

Market-Wide

A whole group sells off

Cyclical Downturn

The whole industry hits a down-cycle

e.g. metals, cement, autos

Sector Overhang

A sector falls out of favour or faces policy risk

e.g. PSU banks, telecom, pharma pricing

Market Dislocation

A market-wide crash drags good companies down

e.g. COVID-19 in 2020, the 2008 crisis

*USFDA - United States Food and Drug Administration

The contrarian's question: is the pessimism temporary or structural?

Examples are illustrative and do not refer to any specific stock held or to be held by the scheme.

Introducing Mirae Asset Contra Fund

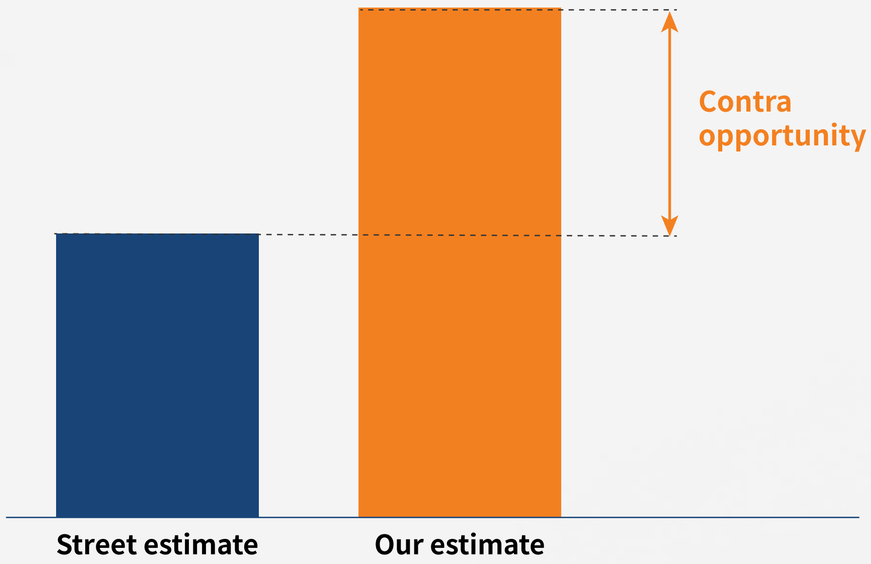

Our Investment Approach (1/5)

A Different Fund In The Mirae Asset Stable

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Out of form, not out of class.

Where the opportunity lies

Portfolio mix: a barbell, tilted to growth

Growth

Quality businesses de-rated on short-term worries

Value

Cyclicals and turnarounds near the bottom of the cycle

Illustrative representation only.

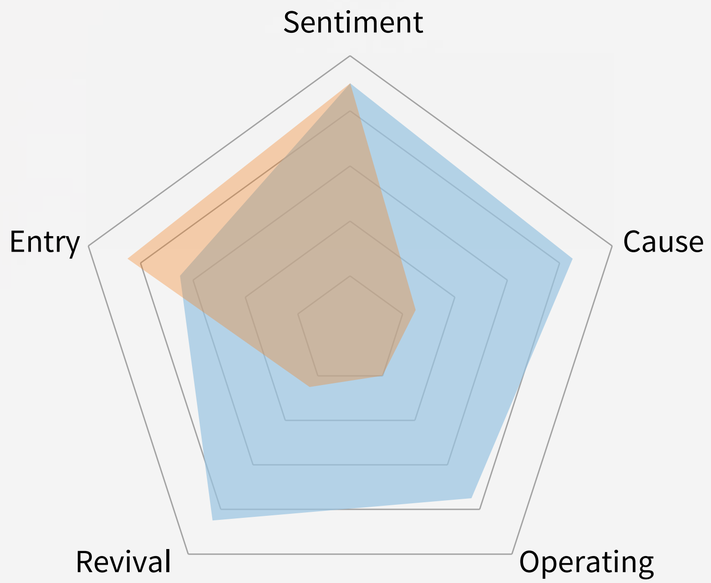

The Fund Manager may at its own discretion consider any other factors that are relevant to the contrarian investment strategy and in line with the investment objective of the Scheme.

Our Investment Approach (2/5)

Our SCORE* Framework: Five Filters For Every Idea

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Five lenses, not a pass-or-fail test. The more an idea clears, the higher our conviction.

High-conviction idea: strong on most lenses

Value trap: cheap and hated, but broken

How to read: Orange is a high-conviction idea, strong on most lenses. Blue is a value trap: hated and cheap, but weak on Cause, Operating and Revival. Illustrative.

S		Sentiment Washout Has the crowd left?	Lagged the market, trades well below its peak, and big investors have sold
C		Cause Check Temporary or terminal?	Cyclical or fixable problem: buy. Structural damage: avoid
O		Operating Fitness Can it survive the bad patch?	Healthy balance sheet, real cash flows, clean governance
R		Revival Trigger What brings it back?	A clear catalyst: cycle turn, deleveraging, new management, demerger
E		Entry Discipline Is the price right?	Cheap compared with what it earns in a normal year

Find Filter Finalise

*SCORE (Sentiment, Cause, Operating fitness, Revival, Entry): our in-house framework for contra investing, helping us separate a temporary setback from a permanent one.

Our Investment Approach (3/5)

Owning A Stock: From First Buy To Exit

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Every position has an entry plan and an exit plan from day one.

BUY

Staggered Buying

Build in stages, preferring stocks well below their all-time high. No attempt to time the bottom.

SIZE

Conviction-Led Weights

Bigger positions where conviction is higher; active sector calls, never a single-cycle bet.

WATCH

Exit Triggers Upfront

What would break the investment case is written down on day one.

REVIEW

Time-Bound Review

Ideas that stall are revisited on a fixed timeline, not held on hope.

SELL

We Sell When...

Mispricing Closes
price reaches our fair value

Thesis Breaks
the reason for buying no longer holds

A Better Idea
capital moves to a stronger opportunity

Patience with discipline: we give ideas time to work, but never hold them on hope.

The investment strategy is indicative and may change at the fund manager's discretion, within the limits of the Scheme Information Document.

Our Investment Approach (4/5)

Portfolio Guardrails

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Six built-in limits that keep a contrarian portfolio disciplined.

1
Approach
Bottom-Up Stock Picking
plus active sector calls

2
Portfolio Mix
A Growth–Value Barbell
with a tilt towards growth

3
Market Cap*
Agnostic
large, mid and small caps

4
Active Share
Higher Than Our Current Equity Funds
at both stock and sector level

5
Portfolio Size
50 (±10) Stocks
diversified, yet high conviction

6
Overlap
Relatively Lower
versus our existing schemes

The investment strategy is indicative and may change at the fund manager's discretion, within the limits of the Scheme Information Document.

*Pursuant to Clause 3.9 of SEBI Master Circular dated March 20, 2026, the universe of "Large Cap" shall consist of top 100 entities, "Mid Cap" shall consist of 101st to 250th entities, "Small Cap" shall consist of 251st and onwards entities in terms of full market capitalization

Our Investment Approach (5/5)

How It Differs From Our Existing Equity Funds

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

Our Existing Equity Funds		Mirae Asset Contra Fund
Benchmark-aware construction	Starting point	Bottom-up conviction
Measured active bets	Stock calls	Higher active stock calls
Closer to benchmark weights	Sector calls	Higher active sector calls
Stays closer to it	Stance on the index	Will not mimic it

We Will

- Seek to back businesses where our earnings view is ahead of the street
- Build positions in stages

We Won't

- Chase momentum or crowded themes
- Buy value traps, or hold a broken thesis

Comparison with existing schemes is directional and illustrative. Portfolio parameters are indicative and may change at the fund manager's discretion, within the limits of the Scheme Information Document.

Contra Case Study

One Of The Private Sector Banks

A leadership and accounting crisis, not a broken franchise.

Correction −62.3%
15-Jan-24 to 25-Mar-25

Payoff so far +46.2% (1.46x)
25-Mar-25 to 12-Nov-26

S — Sentiment Washout
Accounting lapses sparked a 27% single-day fall and the exit of top management, taking the stock 62% below its Jan-24 peak.

C — Cause Check
Accounting and control failures in specific books, not the franchise: deposits held at ₹4.11 lakh cr even in the crisis quarter (Mar-25)

O — Operating Fitness
Capital adequacy of 16.24% in the loss-making quarter; deposits up 10% YoY to ₹4.29 lakh cr and LCR* at 127% by Sep-26

R — Revival Trigger

Contra Case Study

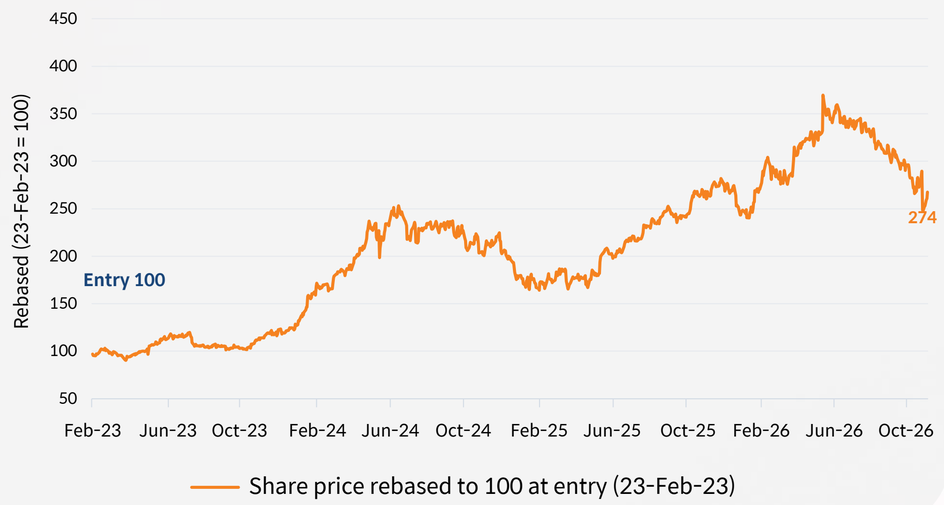

One Of India's Leading Diesel & Gas Engine & Genset Makers

MIRAE ASSET Mutual Fund

DG genset demand had a runway beyond the electrification fear, and data-centre capex added a new leg.

Entry ₹1,597 | PE 37.4
Entry on 23-Feb-23

Return since entry +173.6% (2.74x)
23-Feb-23 to 13-Nov-26

S — Sentiment washout
The street doubted DG genset demand on electrification and new technology advance, and questioned the terminal value.

C — Cause check
Was the demand risk structural? In our assessment, it was not as slower adoption of newer technology kept DG gensets relevant.

O — Operating fitness
Demand drivers rebounded: a recovery in the capex cycle and in real estate demand, including commercial.

R — Revival trigger
AI and data-centre capex added a new source of demand for the company, beyond the core DG business.

E — Entry discipline
Entered at PE 37.4 on 24-Feb-23 at ₹1,571. The stock is up 2.78x since then.

Source: Share prices: Bloomberg closing prices, rebased to 100 ; price returns excluding dividends; Financials: Ace Equity (consolidated).

Mirae Asset Contra Fund At A Glance

MIRAE ASSET
Mutual Fund

Our Approach To Contra

- Aims to spot opportunities the market has temporarily given up on
- Separate temporary pain from permanent damage using five research filters (SCORE*)
- A barbell of growth and value, tilted towards growth
- Clear exit discipline: sell when the mispricing closes or the thesis breaks

Why Contra Now

- India has lagged the world: MSCI India −2.7% in USD, 2026 YTD[1]
- Sector valuations far apart: IT −39%, Consumer Durables −30% vs Sep 2024 PE[2]
- Earnings expected to recover: consensus EPS growth of 15.9%–32.9% a year, FY26–28E[3]

How It Differs From Our Equity Funds

- Higher active stock and sector calls than our current equity funds
- Built bottom-up;
- Relatively lower overlap with our existing schemes
- Market-cap agnostic, with around 50 (±10) stocks

*SCORE (Sentiment, Cause, Operating fitness, Revival, Entry): our in-house framework for contra investing, helping us separate a temporary setback from a permanent one.

Out of form, not out of class. Buy what is out of favour, but only if it is fixable.
